Financial Policy

Insurance: Your insurance coverage is a contract between you and your insurance company. You are ultimately responsible for payment on your account. We will assist by billing all insurance companies. Please provide us with complete insurance information (copy of your insurance card) and inform our office concerning any changes in your address, telephone number, employer or new primary physician.

Medicare: We accept Medicare assignment. Your authorization statement allows David Wilkinson, MD, PC to release any information needed to process your claim to the Social Security Administration or its intermediaries or carriers.

Referrals: You are responsible for securing referrals from you primary care physician (if required by your insurance). If a written authorization of referral has not been received in our office at the time of your appointment, you will be financially responsible for the office visit and other costs related to the visit.

Motor vehicle accidents: We require a $300 deposit on all initial consultations. We will bill your insurance company and reimburse you when we are paid.

Self-pay and services not covered by Insurance: Payment in full is required at the time of service. If circumstances prevent you from paying your account in full, you will need to make special payment arrangements with out billing department in advance.

Co-payments: Co-payments are due at the time of your appointment.

Medical records: If you are in need of your medical records, we will provide you with on copy of your records at no charge to you. If additional copies are needed there will be a charge of $25.00 per set. Once we have received your payment, we will immediately respond to your request.

NSF Checks: There is a $25.00 fee for non-sufficient fund checks returned.
